Instant Messaging

Instant Messaging for Associations, Clubs & Organizations, Schools, Churches, Elections

What is Instant Messaging

Telebroadcast Alert's platform uses state-of-the-art alert and notification technology to instantly notify members, parents and students. Our system can notify one person or thousands informing them of emergency alerts and community events within minutes. It is the ideal solution for contacting small groups, large groups, renters, large and small commercial associations direct from your website.

Deliver any message direct from your website or from any phone.
